Matapae - Kapa Haka ki te ao

Te Kapa Haka o Ngāti Whakaue placed second equal with Whāngārā Mai Tawhiti at this year's Te Matatini 2023. The roopū is now in Italy for the Folklore and Folk Art Festival. Tenga Rangitauira says, "He ahurei rima wiki tēnei e rāmemene ana i ngā ahurea taketake o te ao ki te whakaatu, ki te whakanui hoki i ngā taonga kete aronui o tēnā iwi, o tēnā ahurea. I tua atu i tā mātou kawē i ō Ngāti Whakaue kōrero tukuiho me te reo Māori ki te ao, he haerenga tēnei kia wheakotia hoki e mātou ngā whakamīharotanga o tērā whenua me te haere ki ngā urupā o ō mātou koroua i mate atu ki tāwāhi i te wā o ngā pakanga nui o te ao. He wawata tēnei kua roa ngā pouako e manakohia ana, arā, kia kawea te kapa, otirā, te iwi o Ngāti Whakaue kia tipu haere i te ao whakatairanga ai i te ahurea me te reo Māori pērā i ō mātou mātua tūpuna i te wā i a rātou"

Matapae - Director of GARMA Festival visits

CEO of Te Matatini Carl Ross met with Director of GARMA Festival Denise Bowden to discuss the significance of holding events for our indigenous whānau. "The Garma Festival is Australia's largest Indigenous gathering, a 4-day celebration of Yolngu life and culture held in remote northeast Arnhem Land.

Mataoro - Mōteatea Overall winner

Mōteatea te taonga a Te Kani Te Ua

The current holders of this trophy are Whāngārā Mai Tawhiti, and Te Kapa Haka o Te Whānau a Apanui. This Taonga was donated by Aitanga-a-Māhaki and carved by Moni Taumaunu (Ngāti Porou) and Bill Mau (Ngāpuhi). This trophy was made from an eight foot strainer post found on the slopes of Mangatu. Its base is made out of a piece of timber from Hato Paora College near Feilding. There are two hands holding the sides of the receptacle representing Tāne fashioning Hine Ahuone from Papatūanuku (Mother Earth).

Ngā kaupapa kōrero o tēnei pānui:

- Matatini - Organisation updates
- Matapae - Topical discussions
- Mataoro - Profile of a Tāonga, Kapa Haka
